Secretary Moody to Recommend Appropriation of $150,000. Secretary Moody will recommend that Congress appropriate $150,000 for additional quarters at the marine barracks in this city. Two years ago there was an appropriation of $50,000 to erect barracks at this point. These barracks have been completed, and it is the intention to carry out the general design and make the new barracks a continuation on the 9th street side of the buildings recently erected. The estimate will also include the construction of barracks on the south side of the grounds. It is also proposed to tear down the old barracks and wall on the 8th street side and erect a suit-

Knight of the Road in the Dock. John Wilson, about forty years old, a true knight of the road in every way, including make-up and action, was in the dock of the Police Court today. His appearance indicated that he had not in a long time been in contact with soap and water. "He was begging from door to door on 9th street northwest yesterday afternoon," a policeman reported to Judge Kimball.

"What for?" the court inquired. "Something to eat; and when I arrested im he had on three coats, with pieces of bread in all of the pockets."
"Judge, I work for my living," was all that Wilson would say. "Yes," the court said, "you work people for all you can. 'Not a bit of it," the man replied.

Special Dispatch to The Evening Star.

lumbia Golf Clubs. The fall golf season opened in the District this afternoon, when the Columbia and Washington Golf Clubs sent representative teams into the field to battle for the silver cup hung up by The Evening Star Company. The trophy is now in possession of the Columbia Club.

Today's contest took place at the Washington Club course, which was in excellent condition, the greens rivaling the surface of a billiard table. Captains Lee Harban of the Columbia and Talcott of the Washingtons failed to put their best teams in the field on account of the absence from the city of many members of the two organi-The weather was almost ideal, as the clouds hid the sun, and the mist that overhung the city was swept away by the slight breeze that blew over the heights on the Virginia side of the Potomac. The Columbia team was accompanied to the Washington Club's grounds by a considerable folvantage.

The two teams began gathering at the home of the Washington club as early as 1 o'clock, and immediately after donning their pan decided to send troops to Korea, the angainst the late king and queen were found guilty and sentenced to imprisonment.
